OVS, ITALY’S NO. 1 FAST FASHION BRAND INAUGURATES ITS NEW STORE IN MADRID

Friday 7th April, opening party with cocktail and dj set

Madrid, April 2017 – OVS, first fast fashion brand in Italy, opens a new store in Madrid and offers a whole new experience: young, dynamic atmosphere; ever-changing ranges; bang on-trend items. All at accessible prices with great attention to quality and respect for social responsibility. The perfect choice when it comes to giving you the freedom to create your own style.

The new OVS store in Plaza Norte 2 - Avenida del Juncal 11 opens Thursday 6th April and welcomes the public Friday 7th April, from 6 pm with a cocktail and DJ set.

A 750 sq m space highlighting the evolution of OVS, a leader in Italy in the fast fashion industry, which is constantly innovating in its style, languages and dialogue with the customer. This store shall be added to the network of over 40 stores already present in the country.

A contemporary, essential space to emphasize the products and give them the starring roles. Light-coloured wood, glass and metal coupled with coloured plexiglass slabs go to frame the products and furnishing elements conceived as small free-standing architectures. The spaces in the store stand out for their clean lines and the attention placed on environmental sustainability in the choice of the materials.

Distinctiveness, continuous renewal and attention to quality are the main features of the wide choice of products devised by the OVS Product & Design Department, taking advantage of collaborations with well-known designers and talents from the most famous international fashion schools.

OVS is the place where everybody can freely create their own style, with a careful eye on quality, and always at a democratic price. That’s why, each year, 15 million customers choose OVS.
